

Louisville Slugger® Batter's Gloves

HB

Bionic Batting Gloves

Orthopedically designed. Premium grade Cabretta leather. Bionic anatomical padding increases surface contact with bat. SRG padding reduces vibration and permits a lighter grip. Pre-rotated finger design. Lycra motion zones improve flexibility and reduce bunching. Neoprene wrist cuff for tighter comfortable fit.

UPPER HAND® Batting Gloves

Wear on "Upper Hand" when batting. Raised pad built into palm positions bat into proper grip to increase bat speed and leverage. Promotes full wrist motion during swing. Protects against bone bruises and absorbs shock. Built-in safety features help reduce forearm tension and prevent bone bruises. "Power Pairs" automatically line up the "knocking knuckles" for maximum strength at point of contact.

Upper Hand Individually Packed
